DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 31, s. 2012

To: All Public Schools District Supervisors
All Elementary / Secondary School Principals / OICs

This is a reiteration of the Department issuances of unnumbered memorandum on the safety measures and protocols to make our schools and committees resilient against any kind of disaster. Sad to say, our country has been hit by varies unprecedented disasters in the past few months.

Considering that the country lies in the "Pacific King of Fire" and is prone to earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, typhoons and floods, we are reiterating the need for disaster preparedness through the regular conduct of earthquake drills and first aid orientation / training, classroom discussion on key disaster risk reduction, assessment and validation of school building integrity, stability and safety and the like. Further, all concerned school heads are advised to constantly coordinate with the local government, especially with their DRRM unit and follow the safety measures and protocols.

For your immediate attention and appropriate action.

DR. AMANCIO S. VILLAMEJOR JR., CESO IV
Schools Division Superintendent
