BUHAY NANAY, " d Filipino Chapter "

SYNOPSIS

Vera is an ambitious woman from the province who dreams of making it big in Manila as a beauty queen. But when she gets pregnant at a young age, all her dreams are shattered. Left with a baby in her belly and no husband, she stays in the province and goes on with her normal life. When her son, Marco, is born, she leaves him with her best friend Martina. With nothing but her hopes and perseverance, Vera abandons her son and goes to Manila to follow her dreams of being rich and powerful.

Martina, afraid that she won't be able to take care of baby Marco with her meager income, passes him on to another friend, Carlita, who willingly accepts baby Marco. Carlita takes care of Marco like a real son and Marco grows up loving Carlita like a real mother.

Sixteen years pass. Vera is now married to a rich and powerful politician, Carlos. Martina now works as Vera's assistant. Vera and Carlos have an adoptive daughter, Danica, who, despite being given a good life, grows up unhappy and sometimes rebellious.

Vera and Martina never discuss Marco. As far as they're concerned, that event never happened. It's a dark secret that they intend to keep.

Meanwhile, Carlita and Marco, along with Carlita's other siblings, decide to migrate to Manila for greener pastures. Marco enrolls in a high school in the city while Carlita and her siblings continue their mobile store business.

By a strange twist of fate, Carlita and Marco quite literally bump into Vera in a car accident. But since it's been a long time since they saw one another, they don't recognize each other. Things get complicated when Martina learns that Carlita and Marco are now living in Manila. Suddenly, their secret is not so safe anymore. And to make matters worse for Vera and Martina, Marco and Danica meet in school and start having feelings for each other.

You can leave your past behind but your past catches up with you. In a hilarious but touching turn of events, mistakes will be corrected, offenses will be forgiven and families will be reunited. Motherhood has a lot of different faces but all are synonymous with only one thing: unselfishness. Ito ang Buhay Nanay.
