dear Ma'am

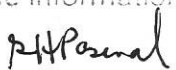

On the month of july and august,we celebrate national book month. This is the month that the publisher,school and private institution promote Filipino reading materials especially made for children. The commissions on national book month were spearheading this campaign by putting up whole exhibits,brainstorming film showing and storytelling activities that will enhance the interest of Filipino children the importance and value of reading materials, as publisher of children's book written in Filipino use encourage schools to let the school children browse not only school textbook but also informative reading materials.

In the view of this, we channel this communication to your office to request a permission if you could allow us to conduct book promotion in your respective school.and its voluntary only our agent gives some couple free for library.

Thank you very much for helping us makes this important month a memorable on the Filipino children.

Very truly yours,
amancio a. palma
